

Electronic Payment Authorization 21st Century General Agency Inc.

I authorize 21st Century General Agency Inc. to initiate deductions from my bank account. I authorize the financial institution listed below on this form to accept the deductions initiated by 21st Century. I do certify that I have and will maintain an active checking account at the financial institution listed and that I will maintain sufficient funds to pay all appropriate debit entries. Deductions can only be made in US funds from banks located in the United States. NOTE there will be a $35.00 charge for all insufficient debits.

I provide this authorization subject to the following conditions:

- All deductions for funds due 21st Century will be made from the designated bank account listed on this form.
- Said insured shall have the right to change bank accounts at any time. In order for the change request to be processed, a new payment authorization form must be received. 7 business days should be allowed for the change to be processed.
- All deductions will be made 2 business days after the assigned due date of the monthly payment.
- In event of a company error, 21st Century shall refund the erroneous deduction within 2 business days of being notified.
